

PROJECT MANAGER (TANZANIA)

KUZA Biashara, a private-sector social enterprise, is creating opportunities for rural youth, women, and small business owners by building their capacities as Agripreneurs via its Rural Entrepreneur Development Incubators (REDI). Each Agripreneur offers bundled services of crop advisory and facilitates inputs, credit, and markets to a cohort of 200 smallholder farmers from within their local communities. KUZA has operations across Kenya, Uganda, Rwanda, Mozambique, and Tanzania and a network of 750,000 smallholder farmers.

We are looking to hire a Project Manager who can support our programs in Tanzania.

Job Description

1. Program Implementation Support & Capacity Development of teams
2. Lead Partnership building process to develop strong partnerships
3. Ecosystem Partner & Stakeholder Engagement
4. Backstopping & Technical support to program teams
5. Mentoring & Guiding Communities (agripreneurs & farmers)
6. Solution design, Market Analysis, and Linkages
7. Organize training workshops to ensure scalability & effectiveness of the program

Requirements

Applicants must have over five years of experience, including grass-roots involvement in rural retail business promotion around agriculture & livestock; Experience in project management in an NGO or Bilateral/ Multilateral organizations; set-up is highly desirable; Excellent communication & presentation skills. Applicants must be graduates in Business Management/ Agriculture, Animal Science or other relevant fields from a reputed institution.

Position Vacancy

Tanga & Kilimanjaro

Female candidates are strongly encouraged to apply

To apply, click on bit.ly/kuzatanzania

